Roomvo Catalog

5x your sales

Turn your website into a 24/7 digital showroom

Roomvo Catalog features an always-current product catalog with built-in visualization, making it easy for shoppers to find their perfect product and arrive at your physical showroom ready to buy.

Let your products speak for themselves

With access to a live product catalog of over 250 brands, complete with filtering, beautiful product pages, side-by-side comparisons, and built-in visualization for every product, customers can find exactly what they're looking for without ever leaving your website.

3x more time spent on your website

4x more product engagement

5x more likely to purchase

Show more. Sell more.

Showcase your product catalog online

Shoppers can browse, compare, and visualize your products effortlessly, driving deeper interest and engagement.

Turn uncertainty into confident choices

Customers make faster, more confident decisions when they can explore and visualize their options in their own rooms.

Eliminate manual updates

Your catalog automatically syncs with manufacturer product feeds, keeping your product listings up to date.

"Roomvo is the perfect solution for our website, helping our customers do research before coming into the store, so they have a better idea of what they're looking for."
